	Lord of every river, meadow, and mountain,          Lord of seas and volcanoes, of all creation,          give us wisdom to care for the life          that you have placed in our hands          in your infinite goodness.

FIRST READING          ACTS 4:32-35 READERS          FROM MEXICO	A READING FROM THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES 4:32-35 The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they had everything in common. With great power the apostles bore witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great favor was accorded them all. There was no needy person among them, for those who owned property or houses would sell them, bring the proceeds of the sale, and put them at the feet of the apostles, and they were distributed to each according to the need. The Word of the Lord
RESPONSORIAL          PSALM103 The refrain          from the psalm          (Taize) will be          sung READERS          FROM MEXICO	RESPONSORIAL PSALM          FROM PSALM 103 BLESS THE LORD MY SOUL AND BLESS GOD ´S HOLY NAME          HE LEADS ME INTO LIFE Bless the LORD, my soul;          and do not forget all his gifts,          Who pardons all your sins,          and heals all your ills,          Who redeems your life from the pit,          and crowns you with mercy and compassion. BLESS THE LORD MY SOUL Who fills your days with good things,          so your youth is renewed like the eagle's.          The LORD does righteous deeds,          brings justice to all the oppressed.          He made known his ways to Moses,          to the Israelites his deeds. BLESS THE LORD MY SOUL For as the heavens tower over the earth,          so his mercy towers over those who fear him.          As a father has compassion on his children,          so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him.          For he knows how we are formed,          remembers that we are dust.

	As for man, his days are like the grass; he blossoms like a flower in the field. BLESS THE LORD MY SOUL Bless the LORD, all you his angels, mighty in strength, acting at his behest, obedient to his command. Bless the LORD, all you his hosts, his ministers who carry out his will. Bless the LORD, all his creatures, everywhere in his domain. Bless the LORD, my soul! BLESS THE LORD MY SOUL.

GOSPEL Jn 21: 1-19 PRIEST in Spanish	A READING FROM THE HOLY GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN 21: 1-19 Jesus revealed himself again to his disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself in this way. Together were Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, Zebedee’s sons, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, “I am going fishing.” They said to him, “We also will come with you.” So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. When it was already dawn, Jesus was standing on the shore; but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, “Children, have you caught anything to eat?” They answered him, “No.” So he said to them, “Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something.” So they cast it, and were not able to pull it in because of the number of fish. So the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, “It is the Lord.” When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tucked in his garment, for he was lightly clad, and jumped into the sea. The other disciples came in the boat, for they were not far from shore, only about a hundred yards, dragging the net with the fish. When they climbed out on shore, they saw a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread. Jesus said to them, “Bring some of the fish you just caught.” So Simon Peter went over and dragged the net ashore full of one hundred fifty-three large fish. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, “Come, have breakfast.” And none of the disciples dared to ask him, “Who are you?” because they realized it was the Lord.

	Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. This was now the third time Jesus was revealed to his disciples after being raised from the dead. When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.” He said to him, “Feed my lambs.” He then said to him a second time, “Simon, son of John, do you love me?” He said to him, “Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.” He said to him, “Tend my sheep.” He said to him the third time, “Simon, son of John, do you love me?” Peter was distressed that he had said to him a third time, “Do you love me?” and he said to him, “Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.” Jesus said to him, “Feed my sheep. Amen, amen, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to dress yourself and go where you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go.” He said this signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. And when he had said this, he said to him, “Follow me.”
