

My dear Sisters, you are in shock,
you must be, you have to be.
Your beloved Sol has died.
She is not here.
She is risen.
Do not be afraid.

Just as the women at the empty tomb
were filled with shock, so are you.
You must be, you have to be. Sol is not here.

« Mary of Solitude » has lived her mission on Mother Earth, Bringing all of us closer to Jesus in his encounter with the Samaritan woman, another woman of solitude who became a true disciple.

She is not here.
She is risen.
Do not be afraid.

Sol is with God and God is with you.

Sheila Smith RSCJ (USC)

