

What good is it to me that Mary gave birth to the son of God fourteen hundred years ago, and I do not also give birth to the Son of God in my time and in my culture?

We are all meant to be mothers of God.

God is always needing to be born.

People think God has only become a human being there in an historical incarnation but that is not so;
for God is here-

in this very place just as much incarnate as in a human being long ago.
And this is why God has become a human being:
that God might give birth to you as the only begotten, and no less.

Meister Eckhart, 13th century mystic and theologian
