

This is my Body, which will be given up for you

This my Blood,
the Blood of the new eternal covenant, poured out for you and for the many for the forgiveness of sins.

Do this in memory of me

With love and hope as we continue to live this Paschal mystery each day, Sister Barbara Dawson and the General Council

The body of Christ continues to suffer the wounds of our brothers and sisters, in Ukraine and throughout our world.

May our small efforts at reconciliation within ourselves, among ourselves and with both our neighbors and strangers, proclaim that life does overcome death, that Love conquers hate, that

Resurrection HOPE is possible in our blessed and broken world.
