Partnership consultations

Pilots / Research

YOUNG PEOPLE

Young people participate in online and offline global citizenship and dialogue activities

TEACHERS

Teachers are certified as dialogue educators

Teachers are supported with classroom material and pedagogical assistance

PARTNERS

Generation Global is embedded in partners' offer

Key partnerships cultivated

Existing resources are refined, access expanded, and new activities trialed

Outputs

Outcomes

Young people demonstrate the 5 core skills of dialogue and a greater knowledge of different cultures, beliefs, values and global issues leading to diversity awareness and open-mindedness when engaging with difference

Young people are global citizens, who foster more positive and inclusive attitudes towards diversity, that reflect in transformative offline and online encounters across identity lines

Teachers have increased pedagogical knowledge and skills, and improved access to tools to confidently and effectively support students to become global citizens

Goals

Young people are open-minded global citizens who leverage intercultural dialogue to engage with diversity and navigate global challenges

Start of the Project: September 21th 2026!

Already doing something for peace?

Bring it in — we'll help it bloom!
